(i) Proactive tackling of cross border terrorism within J&K.

(ii) Accelerating economic development of the State.

(iii) Prepared to talk with any group of people within the State who eschew the path of violence and who may have any legitimate grievances.

The Central Govt. has released funds in the form of additional central assistance, special plan assistance and special central assistance during 1998-99, 1999-2000 and 2001-2002 for accelerated economic development to the Govt. of J&K as under :—

(Rs. in crores)

Sl. No.	Scheme	1998-1999	1999-2000	2001-2002
1.	Additional central assistance	112	520	98.3
2.	Special plan assistance	250	300	500
3.	Special central assistance	850	850	200

(c) Details of heads under which these funds were spent by the State Government alongwith the details of the expenditure are not maintained in the Central Government.

Pakistanis Overstaying in India

†113. SHRI RAM JETHMALANI :
SHRI RAJIV RANJAN SINGH 'LALAN' :

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that a number of Pakistanis had come to India on 'Special Permit' basis till December, 2001;

(b) if so, the number of such Pakistanis out of them who have not gone back to Pakistan till the beginning of June, 2002;

(c) the State-wise number of the said Pakistanis; and

(d) the number of such persons out of them who were legally bound to go back by June, 2002?

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO) : (a) No, Sir, The Pakistani nationals are not being issued any special permits to come to India. The permit system in vogue from 1948 to 1952 was replaced by the Passport and Visa system in 1952.

(b) to (d) Questions do not arise in view of the above.

Fidayeen attack on Kaluchak Camp

114. DR. AKHILESH DAS : Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that the Fidayeen attack on May 14, 2002 near Jammu on the Kaluchak Camp Residential Complex of the Security Forces was not unexpected; and if so, what preventive steps had been taken to prevent such attacks; and

(b) what further steps have since been taken to prevent such attacks in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO) : (a) and (b) In the prevailing security scenario in the State of J&K, suicide atttacks on security forces posts/ establishment are known facets of the modus operandi of terrorists. The timing and place of occurrence of such attacks cannot always be anticipated. The suicide attack at the Kaluchak Camp, Residential Complex of the security forces near Jammu on May 14, 2002 was unexpected.

Security measures have been enhanced to meet similar eventually in future.

Increased deployment of troops at border/LoC and intensive pressure on terrorists in the hinterland conjointly with the State Government has helped in containing the problem. A multi-pronged approach, has been adopted to contain cross border terrorism which includes, inter alia, strengthening border management to check infiltration; proactive action against terrorists within J&K; gearing up intelligence machinery; greater functional integration through an institutionalized framework of Operation Groups and Intelligence Groups of the UHQ and improved technology, weapons and equipments for security forces and legal action against over ground supporters of the terrorists.